GUNNEDAH

NORTH WEST NEW SOUTH WALES
Warm, friendly and spanned by beautiful country aspects, the Koala Capital of the World offers much more than just our famous furry friends. Surrounded by the expansive Liverpool Plains and framed by the Nandewar Ranges, the Gunnedah Shire region embodies a warm welcome that is only found in rural Australia.

Country charm is complemented by a lively cultural and social scene. Hidden gems from home-grown honey to mountain biking trails are dotted throughout the region and a lazy afternoon can be filled with a cozy picnic blanket atop one of our striking vantage points. Remember the feeling of a hearty hug from your favourite grandparent? This is the welcome that Gunnedah offers, complete with the customary trifle – in the form of a great coffee or well-poured beer.

A commodity hub, Gunnedah offers a unique rural lifestyle for all ages and is sure to hold a soft spot in your heart or memory. A genuine smile and ‘g’day’ are often exchanged as you wander down Conadilly Street. If you’re on one of our country roads, you’re bound to receive the customary raise of the hand from behind the steering wheel, making you feel as if you are venturing down the path that will lead you to old friends.

Wherever you are in the Shire, you’re surrounded by beautiful country and friendly faces. It is little wonder that this beautiful area inspired Dorothea Mackellar - author of “My Country”, to write some of her amazing poetry and prose. So take your time and discover our beautiful Shire. Bask in the wild open spaces, or duck downtown to get a dose of food, shopping and culture. Wander out Yonder. You may even choose to stay a while.

BOONALLA ABORIGINAL AREA

Carefully tucked away in the ancient hills of Kelvin, Boonalla offers hikers and naturalists ‘off the beaten track’ fun in the quintessential Aussie bush. This space is also brimming with cultural significance for the Kamilaroi people, and offers a great place to explore and learn.

The one-hour trek to Boonalla Cave provides explorers with an opportunity to spy over 197 native flora species which dot the landscape. Native fauna species including koala, spotted-tail quoll, king parrot and border thick-tailed gecko, call Boonalla home. Once at the top of the ridge, Boonalla Cave appears as a strong physical presence both geologically and culturally. This significant place, which holds the secrets and stories of the Kamilaroi people, is an impressive reward for intrepid explorers.

Good to know: Base camp offers a stop for lunch and to freshen up post trail walk. Best to visit in fine weather. Take plenty of water and a map, available from the Visitor Information Centre. This is a culturally significant place – please visit the space respectfully and help preserve its historical heritage.

THE BICENTENNIAL CREATIVE ARTS CENTRE GALLERY

An undercurrent of artisans, makers, musicals, performers and dreamers have rumbled through Gunnedah for decades, enriching the cultural fabric of the community and finding a home at the Bicentennial Creative Arts Centre Gallery in the heart of Gunnedah’s Cultural Precinct. Housing a large and wide ranging collection of works, the Art Gallery is fast becoming a hot spot for emerging artists. Visiting exhibitions from across the nation take up residency at the gallery throughout the exhibition calendar, alongside local artisans creating an interesting, ever-changing space to explore.

Good to know: Open 7 days. Free entry.
BIRD’S EYE VIEW

Panoramic views of Gunnedah and surrounds, the sprawling Breeza Plains, the hills of Kelvin and as far as the Nandewar Ranges, can be seen from Gunnedah’s two vantage points.

Pensioners Hill was once a shanty town during the Great Depression and now features rock sculptures depicting people and characters of significance to Gunnedah.

Porcupine Lookout, named Bindea by the Kamilaroi people, sits atop the Porcupine Range and is accessible by car and a number of walking tracks, popular to locals and visitors. The Wallaby Trap, a natural U-shaped grassy area at the base of the range, was a popular place to hunt wallaby.

Good to know: Pack a picnic and take a hike along one of the many walking tracks that lead to the top of Porcupine Lookout. The Lookout offers a shaded area and picnic tables.

MCDONAGH’S MINIATURE RAILWAY

After a lifetime in the front garden of Mr Don McDonagh’s home, this much-loved miniature model railway has found a new home at The Gunnedah Rural Museum. Looping rail tracks, tiny shopfronts, buildings and incy-wincy people represent years past in a nod to mid-century regional Australian living.

The Gunnedah Rural Museum also boasts one of the largest collections of early agriculture and transport memorabilia in the nation.

Good to know: Open 7 days, between 900am – 300pm, including most public holidays. The amazing volunteers who operate the museum are a great source of information and are only too happy to chat. Coach groups welcome.
LAKE KEEPIT

A family day-trip destination of choice for locals, Lake Keepit is literally a water playground offering year-round activities, adventures and endless summer time fun. Keepit offers a prime location for boating, fishing, sailing, water-skiing and other water sports. In addition to the lake, Keepit also offers a range of land-based activities including a kids’ waterpark, skate bowl, BMX track, playground and tennis court to keep them well and truly occupied. Located just 25kms drive from Gunnedah, this is a destination well worth the visit.

Good to know: Open 7 days. Onsite accommodation to suit all tastes and budgets is available. An onsite kiosk is in operation.
COUNTRY DRIVES/VILLAGES AND PUBS

Hit the road and join the thousands of travellers who’ve delighted in the sprawling Liverpool Plains landscape since explorer John Oxley passed through in 1818 on his way to what is now Port Macquarie. With its centrepiece, the ephemeral Goran Lake, the surrounding plains sweep from the Liverpool Range like a huge saucer that displays a changing patchwork of colours that vary with the seasons and the crops grown.

At the core of our rural communities, scattered across the Shire, are the villages. Nowadays, with their residents enjoying a quieter pace, the essentials are acquired from the corner store and socialising done at the pub - the local ‘watering hole’ where locals and travellers can share stories over a schooner or two. Gunnedah Shire supports five villages – Mullaley, Tambar Springs, Breeza, Carroll and Curlewis – and each has a claim to fame!
POETS’ DRIVE

Poetry with a twist! Gunnedah’s connection with renowned Australian poet, Dorothea Mackellar inspired the Poets’ Drive. Following the trail, by both vehicle and on foot, reveals plaques featuring inscribed Australian poems that reflect their placement at significant locations around Gunnedah. Each poem on the drive shares a unique place in Australia’s literary journey. For example, a mention of the Mooki River in A B (Banjo) Paterson’s, Johnson’s Antidote, inspired its placing at Woolshed Reserve, not far from the Mooki River’s conflux with the Namoi River and in ANZAC Park, Dorothea Mackellar’s iconic My Country, is in close proximity to the Dorothea Mackellar statue.

Many locals familiar with the now famous Lyrical Loos in Brock’s Court observe with anticipation newcomers’ reactions to not only the large poetry inspired silhouettes on the external walls, but also the piped poetry and poetry inscribed doors within!

WALKS AND PATHS

Exploring on two wheels or a leisurely walk is a delight. Not only do you have the freedom to easily check out your new surrounds in detail, but it’s a great way to exercise and immerse into the stimulation of encountering new places.

Take advantage of Gunnedah’s easy-walking topography and explore its streets, paths and walks. Check out the map and ask at the Visitors’ Centre for places to explore in and around Gunnedah.

BINDEA WALK

Early mornings and evenings find many locals experiencing the joys of nature and the outdoors via the Bindea Walk that predominantly weaves its way up and around Porcupine Reserve. A walk along the ridgeline looking east reveals picturesque views along the gently undulating trail. Make sure you glance into the trees for a koala or two as you stroll!
Precincts to explore

DOWNTOWN PRECINCT

Coffee cruising is an easy task, with buzzing cafes and eateries fast becoming a signature of Downtown Gunnedah. The precinct offers easy access to great food with over 20 cafes, restaurants, takeaways, clubs and pubs located within walking distance. From hearty pub grub, to simple flavoursome bites, Downtown will deliver the goods.

Browse a diverse mix of retail brands, eclectic boutiques filled with fashion and homewares, second hand book nooks, hand-made treasures, art galleries and green spaces to play and explore.

POETS’ PRECINCT

Gunnedah has a long history and enduring romance with iconic Australian poet and author of “My Country”, Dorothea Mackellar. Dorothea, atop her horse, is immortalised in bronze in Anzac Park and Gunnedah proudly holds Australia’s longest-running and largest junior poetry competition, the Dorothea Mackellar Poetry Competition. Leading to the base of the sculpture is Maas Walk, a native garden created in honour of Dorothea Mackellar Memorial Society’s founder Mikkie Maas. Nearby, The Mackellar Centre, is home to thirty-two watercolour paintings by Jean Isherwood, illustrating the famous poem. The centre is dedicated to children’s poetry and all things Dorothea.

The world class Gunnedah Shire Band calls the precinct home, neighbouring The Mackellar Centre and Water Tower Museum. War memorials also pepper the precinct.

The Gunnedah War Memorial Pool offers a place to soak and play year round.
RIVERSIDE PRECINCT

Part of the Murray-Darling Basin, the Namoi River weaves its way across the northern edge of Gunnedah, just a stone’s throw from the town’s central business district. The precinct is interlaced with cycleways and paths that follow the river bends, and traces Gunnedah’s original downtown district. Maitland Street’s streetscape lays claim to the town’s original buildings from early settlement.

Nearby Woolshed Reserve is a leash-free area for pets, with seating, a barbecue and plenty of parking. The historical significance of the “Woolshed” relates to early settler John Johnson, who established a woolshed on the banks of the river, circa 1860.

Taking advantage of the flat terrain, the Donnelly Sporting Fields were also established alongside the Namoi River. The fields are used for a variety of sports in a relaxed and tranquil setting.

CULTURAL PRECINCT

Holding sway as one of the region’s emerging art spaces, the Cultural Precinct provides an opportunity to experience innovative and traditional creative forms, including visual arts, performing arts, making spaces, film, live music and theatre.

The Bicentennial Creative Arts Centre Gallery has a full calendar of visiting artists as well as exhibitions from locally acclaimed artists. Two community created murals, The Two Rivers Water Mural and The Red River Gum feature within the Cultural Precinct.

Fostering local talent, the Gunnedah Conservatorium occupies a portion of the Town Hall.

Outside the Precinct, developing public art spaces, pop up events, sculptures, community markets, local art galleries, museums and maker’s studios churn and inspire.
